Jewish Federation to Avoid Deficit by Drive

Charity Organizations Need $1,-700,000 More Than Has Been

The Has Been Pledged for 1920

More than 100 committees will, begin canvassing to-morrow for the $1,700,000 required to prevent a deficit this year in the budgets of the various institutions affiliated with the Federated Jewish Charities. The canvass has been designated as the "Safeguard Federation Drive."

Figures given out on the financial requirements of the various institutions show that the 1920 budgets call for an outlay of $3,849,604, of which only $2,100,000 will be met by the existing annual pledges. Felix Warburg, chairman of the federation for support of the warburg chairman of the federation for support of the warburg chairman of the federation for support of the wage contracts.

"Out of every dollar contributed less than 4 cents goes for administration purposes," said Mr. Warburg.

Increased Rail Pay Demands

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—Railroad administration officials indicated their belief to-day that wage demands of the railway brotherhoods and shopmen probably would remain quiescent until the termination of Federal control.

A canvass of the general situation was said to show a sentiment among the union membership to await the return of the roads to their owners before submitting demands for revision of the wage contracts.

"When I entered your building to arrange for the funeral of my dear husband," said Mrs. D. to Mr. Campbell, "I was on the verge of collapse. I expected thought that my darling is so well taken care of."

"If your institution did nothing more than that," said Mrs. D.'s brother, "take the fear from a woman's heart and implant there hope and contentment; if it did nothing also then being also the second also the being also t
